

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. 3 pieces of candy were in a bowl, and 2 were given away. How many pieces of candy remain in the bowl?

2. 5 stars were visible in the sky. As the night got darker, more stars became visible. Then there were 8 stars. How many more stars became visible?

3. The beach has 3 sunbathers and 5 swimmers. How many people are there in total?

4. 4 cyclists were participating in a race. At the last moment, some more cyclists joined the race. Now there were 8 cyclists. How many more cyclists joined at the last minute?

5. David had 8 crayons. He lost 4 of them. How many crayons does he have left?

6. A box had 7 markers. If 6 were used up, how many markers are left in the box?

7. 4 birds were sitting on the tree. Suddenly, some more birds landed. Then there were 8 birds. How many birds landed on the tree?

8. In a parking lot, there were 8 cars. 4 cars left the parking lot. How many cars are still in the parking lot?

9. Elijah has 3 puzzle pieces and he finds 2 more. How many puzzle pieces does Elijah have now?

10. The office building has 4 employees on the first floor and 4 employees on the second floor. How many employees are there in total?