

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Scarlett has 13 pieces of fruit. 3 of them are oranges, and the rest are bananas. How many bananas does Scarlett have?

2. 10 shells were on the beach. Some more shells washed up. Then there were 17 shells. How many shells washed up?

3. 5 fish were in the tank. Some more fish were added. Then there were 19 fish. How many more fish were added?

4. 2 volunteers were working in an animal shelter. After a call for help, some more volunteers joined. Then there were 16 volunteers. How many more volunteers joined?

5. 13 athletes compete in running and swimming events. 2 of the athletes compete in running. How many athletes compete in swimming?