1. An airplane has 28 passengers, including those flying in economy and business class. 6 passengers are in economy class. How many are in business class?

2. At the bakery, there are 30 croissants and the baker adds 25 more. How many croissants are there now?

3. A museum has 70 paintings and sculptures. They have 9 paintings. How many sculptures do they have?

4. A store has 79 jackets and sweaters. 57 of the items are jackets. How many sweaters are there?

5. A store had 91 shirts, but 26 shirts were sold. How many shirts remain in the store?

6. A farm had 84 chickens, but 61 chickens were sold at the market. How many chickens are left on the farm?

7. At the store, there are 27 mangoes and the storekeeper brings 68 more. How many mangoes are there altogether?

8. Esme had 89 colorful buttons and used 79 for her art project. How many buttons does she have left?

9. The beach has 21 sunbathers and 23 swimmers. How many people are there in total?

10. The electronics store has 29 laptops and 21 tablets in stock. How many devices are there in total?