1. 69 tourists were at the museum. Some more tourists arrived by bus. Then there were 90 tourists all together. How many tourists arrived by bus?

2. Of the 78 chairs in a room, 34 are occupied. How many chairs are unoccupied?

3. 30 tourists were at the museum. Some more tourists arrived as part of a guided tour. Then there were 94 tourists. How many tourists were part of the guided tour?

4. In a chess club with 80 members, 19 of them practice with Ivan, and the rest practice with Yara. How many members practice with Yara?

5. 7 animals were living in an animal sanctuary. During a rescue operation, some more animals were brought in. Then there were 80 animals. How many more animals were brought in during the rescue operation?

6. A sports store has 29 basketballs and soccer balls. 7 are basketballs. How many soccer balls are there?

7. 30 beads were on the string. Some more beads were threaded onto it. Then there were 68 beads. How many beads were added?

8. A company has 64 computers. 58 computers are used by the sales department. How many computers are used by other departments?

9. 15 students were in the library. Then, some more students entered. There were 50 students then. How many students entered the library?

10. 26 leaves were on the ground. Some more leaves fell from the trees. Now there were 91 leaves on the ground. How many more leaves fell from the trees?