1. A charity walk had 834 participants from one city and 64 participants from another city. How many participants joined the charity walk in all?

2. A town had 334 people living in it. 349 new people moved to the town. How many people are living in the town now?

3. A company donated 317 pencils to one school and 151 pencils to another school. How many pencils did they donate altogether?

4. The charity collected 91 cans of food and 525 bottles of water. How many items did they collect in total?

5. On Monday, a bakery sold 734 pastries. On Tuesday, they sold 232 more. How many pastries did the bakery sell in total on Monday and Tuesday?

6. A factory produced 258 toy cars in the first hour and 506 toy cars in the second hour. How many toy cars did the factory produce altogether?

7. An office used 221 sheets of paper in the morning and 659 sheets in the afternoon. How many sheets of paper did they use in total?

8. The local library had 433 books. Today, they received 488 new books. How many books does the library have in total?

9. A company produced 273 smartphones this month and 384 smartphones the following month. How many smartphones did the company produce in these two months?

10. A candy store sold 847 chocolate bars in the first week and 18 chocolate bars in the second week. How many chocolate bars were sold over the two weeks?