1. A city had 949 streetlights, but 359 streetlights were replaced with new ones.

How many of the original streetlights are left?

2. A company had 640 paperclips, but Sarah took 160 paperclips for her desk.

How many paperclips are left in the company's supply?

3. A factory had 539 rolls of fabric, but 370 rolls were used to make clothes. How many rolls of fabric remain in the factory?

4. A construction company had 801 bricks, but 259 bricks were used to build a house. How many bricks are left?

5. A forest had 375 trees, but 270 trees were cut down. How many trees are left in the forest?

6. A school had 196 pencils in stock. They distributed 77 pencils to students. How many pencils are left in stock?

7. A truck was carrying 717 kilograms of sand. 130 kilograms were unloaded at a construction site. How many kilograms of sand are left on the truck?

8. A factory produced 887 toys. 407 toys were shipped to stores. How many toys are still at the factory?

9. A warehouse had 672 boxes, but 486 boxes were moved to another location. How many boxes are still in the warehouse?

10. A factory had 239 bottles, but 84 bottles were used for packaging. How many bottles are left in the factory?